WINEMAKER NOTES

Garnacha is the Spanish pronunciation of the varietal popularly known as Grenache. The wine pours a shade of dark, ruby red, and immediately opens with dried fruits. Prunes and raisin are matched with black cherry, cola, strawberry compote, candied raspberry, and a nuance of graham cracker. Ripe, sweet fruit fills the front, while a light, yet concentrated, mid palate support moderate tannins. In the finish, balance is achieved with a touch of acidity, lending to the wines impressive drinkability.
