2014 Columbia Valley

WINEMAKER NOTES

This dark, crimson hued wine erupts with aromas of sweetened raspberry jam, and dried strawberry. A firm, supporting role of American oak spices the varietal with soft smoke, mocha, vanilla, and sweet coconut. The weight is light to medium, characterized by round, rich, and supple tannins. Luscious sweet red fruits and mild acidity cleanse the pallet in this Wahluke Slope Tempranillo.
